

UN Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development (2021-2030)
Regional Kickoff Conference for the Western Pacific and its Adjacent Areas
25-26 November 2021, online

PROGRAM

DECADE ACTION INCUBATOR 11:

Stem the tide of plastic and microplastic transport from rivers to the ocean

Friday 26 November 2021, 1030-1230 (UTC+7, Bangkok time)

Registration

Convener: Daoji Li, East China Normal University, China

| Time | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1030-1032 | Welcome and House-rules |
| 1032-1035 | Self-introductions by invited speakers – 30 secs each |
| MiniTalks (10 min each) | |
| 1035-1045 | Daoji Li: Stem the tide of plastic and microplastic transport from rivers to the ocean |
| 1046-1055 | Patrick Yeung: Role of citizen science in preventing land-based plastic waste ending up in the ocean from rivers |
| 1056-1105 | Wijarn Simachaya: Potential political measure/actions that could mitigate land-based plastic end up in the river |
| 1106-1115 | Lixin Zhu: Riverine microplastic monitoring strategy: limitations and perspectives |
| 1116-1125 | Lonneke Holierhoek: Technologies to clean plastic waste in rivers |
| 1126-1135 | Ivonne Milichristi Radjawane: Progresses of riverine plastic research and interventions in Indonesia |
| 1136-1145 | Vo Tran Tuan Linh: Progresses of riverine plastic research and interventions in Vietnam |
| Discussions | |
| 1146-1225 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Questions regarding to the mini-talks from the audience - Identifying missing expertise - Setting priorities for next-step work on this issue in WESTPAC Region |
| 1126-1230 | Wrap up and Incubator end |